24TH WORLD SCOUT JAMBOREE IN NORTH AMERICA

January 2017 | BULLETIN N° 2

Greetings From North America!

On behalf of the three hosting countries for the 24th World Scout Jamboree, we wanted to take the opportunity to invite Scouts and leaders from member National Scout Organizations of WOSM to “Unlock a New World.”

The 24th World Scout Jamboree will immerse you in the North American experience while you share your culture with youth from around the globe.

We are committed to helping our 24th World Scout Jamboree management team offer life-changing experiences that will help Scouts develop their physical, intellectual, emotional, social, and spiritual lives, united by the Scout Promise and Law.

We are excited that the event will unite the world’s young people to promote peace, mutual understanding, and respect—all in a warmly embracing jamboree experience. Our goal as planners is to create a jamboree that is built on the pillars of friendship, experience, and adventure.

Our challenge to you is to support the jamboree at every opportunity possible—in your town, your Scout unit, and within your NSO!

As you do so, you will be helping us celebrate global diversity as well as an appreciation that the things that make us different really join us together as part of the world Scouting movement.

With all that will be offered, we firmly believe that the World Scout Jamboree experience will help all Scouts discover and embrace solutions to the challenges that affect our increasingly shrinking global village.

We hope you will accept this invitation and challenge to join us July 22 through August 2, 2019, at the Summit Bechtel Reserve for the next World Scout Jamboree.

Michael Surbaugh | Chief Scout Executive,
Boy Scouts of America

Andrew Price | Executive Commissioner and CEO
(Commissaire general et directeur général),
Scouts Canada

José Luis Cárdenas Cortés | Jefe Scout
Nacional Asociación de Scouts de México

CONTINGENT ALLOCATION PROCESS

The official Appointment of Head of Contingent and Contingent Registration Forms were included in Bulletin #1. We have included them again here in Bulletin #2.

The Appointment of Head of Contingent Form deadline is March 31, 2017.

The Contingent Registration Form deadline is no later than December 31, 2017.

The International Commissioners from National Scout Organizations (NSOs) who submit the official Contingent Reservation will receive a confirmation of their preliminary allocation from the office of the 24th World Scout Jamboree.

Allocations are composed of:

- youth participants
- adult leaders
- Contingent Management Team
- International Service Team (IST) members

Terms and Conditions

DEPOSITS OF PARTICIPANT FEES

In order to “guarantee” or “lock in” the contingent allocation number turned in on the Contingent Registration Form, a deposit payment (transmitted in U.S. dollars, wire transfer) for each prospective person (participants, unit leaders, members of the International Service Team, and members of the Contingent Management Team) must be made by December 31, 2017, and received by the office of the World Scout Jamboree. Payments via wire transfer are strongly encouraged. The deposit is per each prospective person.

The payment schedule was provided in Bulletin #1 and is organized by WOSM category for NSOs. Payment of the deposit reserves space for the contingent. Names are not required when the deposit is made. Please note that numbers indicated on a completed Contingent Registration Form will be confirmed via an email sent from the office of the 24th World Scout Jamboree and cannot be guaranteed until the deposit payment has been received.

Deposit payments are due no later than December 31, 2017.

NSOs should pay their deposit to the office of the 24th World Scout Jamboree in U.S. dollars as early as possible to guarantee their allocation numbers.

Deposits will be applied for the contingent and not individual persons. NSOs may change the category of the registration (e.g., change names of three people, delete one IST, and add one CMT) without affecting the deposit.

PAYMENT OF DEPOSITS AND DISCOUNTS

In order to estimate and allocate prospective attendance by NSOs, a 5 percent discount per participant is available if the deposit fees are received in the office of the jamboree no later than December 31, 2017. All deposits must be in U.S. dollars.

Please refer to the fee and discount information found in Bulletin #1. A payment schedule for final fee payments will be posted in future bulletins.

WIRE TRANSFER DETAILS

Wire transfer instructions for the deposit payment made in U.S. dollars will be shared privately via email with NSOs via their International Commissioners as found in the WOSM directory.

REFUND OF DEPOSITS

The jamboree is presently evaluating its policy and practices regarding refunds of deposits and other fees. This policy will be shared in a future edition of the New World News.

CANCELLATION STATEMENT

The Jamboree Organizing Committee has the authority to cancel the event due to compelling reasons. If the jamboree is canceled because of events out of our control (e.g., acts of terrorism, natural disasters), the jamboree organization will not refund the fees.

Terms and Conditions

WHAT PARTICIPANT FEE INCLUDES (WITH OFFICIAL ENTRY AND EXIT POINTS)

The fee for participants includes:

- The jamboree program
 - For youth participants: access to adventure elements at the Summit Bechtel Reserve (limitations may be experienced due to weather and capacity of each adventure element), personal development, leadership, and sustainability focused programs
 - For all participants: access to features normally offered at a World Scout Jamboree, such as the Global Development Village, World Scout Centre, food court, and stadium shows
- All meals for the duration of the 24th World Scout Jamboree beginning with dinner on July 22, 2019, through breakfast on August 2, 2019
- Transport from the designated jamboree entry points to the jamboree site and transport from the jamboree site to the designated jamboree exit points.
- The official entry and exit points for the 24th World Scout Jamboree include:
 - Yeager Airport, Charleston, West Virginia (57 miles/92 kilometers from the site)
 - Charlotte Douglas International Airport, Charlotte, North Carolina (245 miles/386 kilometers from the site)
 - Prince Amtrak railway station, Beckley, West Virginia (13 miles/20.5 kilometers from the site)
- Unit camping kit using the Summit Model, including providing cooking equipment, tents, cots, and campsite tables. (NSOs may use their own tentage at their expense, though it must fit within the footprint of the designated campsite.)
- Medical care in the case of illness (excluding pre-existing conditions) or accidents, including minor surgery or treatment when necessary, during the 24th World Scout Jamboree from July 22, 2019, through August 2, 2019, for participants and unit leaders, and from arrival on-site in July of 2019 until departure from the Summit Bechtel Reserve at the end of their duties for CMT and IST, during jamboree-provided transportation to or from a 24th World Scout Jamboree official entry/exit point, or upon other arrival/exit from the Summit Bechtel Reserve. Note: Medication and any costs relating to hospitalization are NOT included in the jamboree fee.
- A 24th World Scout Jamboree participation package of collectible items and a participant handbook
